

Outdoor Learning - on a shoestring with Shonette Basson

This training is focused on one of the most challenging areas of a primary school in the current economic climate - the outdoor classroom.

Shonette can get delegates to see the outdoor environment as a different learning platform. One that is much needed in our modern children's lives.

Shonette, herself on a shoestring budget, built an outstanding outdoor classroom in an urban area and inspired the rest of the primary school to take their curriculum outdoors. This one day training will inspire you to take learning outdoors.

If you have attended one of Shonette's training courses in the past you will know how entertaining, enthusiastic and inspiring she can be. If you haven't, check out her website, www.shonettebason.com
