National speakers will include Dr Michael Maddison (HMI and National Adviser for History) and Andrew Wrenn (Author and History Adviser for Cambridgeshire).

Practical workshops will be led by Colly Mudie (Norfolk Museums and Archaeology Service), Victoria Draper (Norfolk Record Office) and Anne Roe (NIEAS).

This one day conference is aimed at Primary school staff who teach or have a responsibility for history, Secondary History Teachers who would like to learn more about KS2 History and work more closely with KS2 History Coordinators. It will explore a variety of ideas for creating engaging and rigorous learning in the subject. Participants will also learn about the key findings from the latest HMI report on History, inspection findings and recommendation, and the latest training pack from Ofsted.

Book online at www.cpd.norfolk.gov.uk/sdms/ (Reference: ESTG9/A)

Course fees: £160 Norfolk LA Maintained Schools, £180 All Other Clients (inc Free Schools, Academies and Out of County Schools)

Special Offer: £200 for two or £240 for three delegates. To support cross-phase links and collaboration this offer is open to primary and secondary schools within the same cluster. The fees will be split equally between the participating schools (e.g. 2x primary, 1x secondary from same cluster = £80 per delegate). Please note, that if any of the participating schools are classed as 'all other clients', an additional £20 charge will be made to them.
