

Exploring Food & Farming Projects in the Primary Curriculum at

Free twilight session for teachers and TAs

Monday 13th May – 3.30 – 6.30pm

at Easton College, Schools Barn & College Farm

Hot drinks and homemade cake available

Booking is essential (so we make enough cake!!)

Contact Ruth Cannon, Schools Technician

Call 01603 731257 or email schools@eastonotley.ac.uk

- Visit Easton College Farm, led by Easton College Staff
- Complete Teacher Planning Visits for pre-booked school day visits
- Farming in North Norfolk DVD and CD set – copy for all attendees
- Curriculum linked resources and lesson ideas from the FACE (Farming and Countryside Education) Regional Co-ordinator
- Have a go and hands on activities – wheat milling, butter making and farm linked craft ideas
- Norfolk Farm Education Link resources & incubator loans

In Partnership with

&

Norfolk Farm Education Link

In partnership with Easton College

Norfolk Farm Education Link is a sub-committee of Norfolk Industry, Education and Commerce Group