

TeachMeet East 2013

Saturday 22nd June

Bluebell Primary School, Norwich

This year, TeachMeet East are running three linked events and you are welcome to join us for all, some or just one!

What is TeachMeet?

A TeachMeet is an informal gathering of those curious about teaching and learning. Anyone can share great ideas they've trialed in their classrooms, ask important questions or simply take part in learning conversations. Education professionals from all sectors are welcome to take part.

The main part of TeachMeet is hearing stories about learning, from teachers. This is not an event to present about a product or theory - this is a chance for teachers from all types of establishments to hear ideas from each other. Real tales of practice that make a difference. It is about being engaged and inspired by our immediate colleagues and a whole bucketload of networking to boot.

TeachMeet East: Hands On (11:00am - 1:00pm)

A series of 20-30 minutes hands on and interactive workshops on a range of themes. The usual TeachMeet principles of real ideas and non-sales pitches will be followed, and there will be no charge for the event. So that this session works well, numbers for the TeachMeet East:Hands On are limited to 40.

Do you want to offer a workshop? Let us know in the sign up process.

Lunch will be available between 1:00pm and 2:00pm

TeachMeet East (2:00pm - 5:45pm)

The 'usual' TeachMeet - a mix of 3 and 7 minute talks on a wide range of topics. An excellent opportunity to learn from others working in schools. Come along, share your ideas (if you want to) and take away lots more.

Can you help make TeachMeet East work by offering a 7 or under 5 minute presentation? You don't need to be an expert to present and presentations can be on anything, as long as you aren't selling a product of course!

TeachEat East (6:00pm onwards)

Straight after the main TeachMeet there will be a chance to network further at a venue to be decided.
