

Short Film Competition: “The Unexpected”

Like making short films? Make one in the summer holidays!

Norfolk Prepared is looking for short films about any type of emergency - for example flooding, fire, or severe weather. It could be about how you can plan for an emergency or what you would do if you found yourself in the middle of one. Just use your imagination!

Films can be produced as an individual or group. Competition closes 13th September 2013.

See terms and conditions below for more details.

Prizes include:

- Apple iPad Mini or equivalent value in Apple vouchers,
- Spend a day with an Emergency Services Media Officer,
- Film to be played on the 21st September 2013 at the Norfolk Prepared Week launch.

Competition Terms and conditions:

1. Applicants must be 15—18 years old, who live in Norfolk (UK). Entries accepted from individuals and groups.
2. Films to be a maximum of 3 minutes long on digital media e.g. MP4, WMV or Quick Time.
3. Theme is to be emergency related such as a flood, fire or severe weather.
4. By entering this competition, you will be giving permission for the film to be used for promotional use.
5. If the film contains footage of under 18's, you must send a copy of parental consent for each young person or your entry will not be valid.
6. Closing date Friday 13th September. No late entries will be accepted.
