INTRODUCING

PRIDE 5

THIS YEAR'S FIVE DAY FESTIVAL:
MONDAY 22 - FRIDAY 26 JULY

Norfolk LGBT Project is a community based charity, providing support that is relevant to the needs of the LGBT community in Norfolk and Waveney since 2007

Our aims are:

- To relieve the mental and emotional suffering of LGBT people in the Norfolk & Waveney area who are lesbian, gay, bisexual or transgender (LGBT) or in doubt of their sexuality or gender identity, by the provision of advice, peer-support and information.
- The preservation and protection of public health, in particular amongst LGBT people, by raising awareness and providing information about matters that affect their physical, mental & sexual health.

This is achieved by

- Email, phone or 1-2-1 support
- LGBT Social Support Groups
- Sexual Health Outreach Work in gay venues
- Free condom and lube postal scheme
- School outreach work by request
- The LGBT Guide to Norfolk & Waveney booklet
- Partnership working with relevant organisations
- Family & Friends support
- Producing in-house information booklets

Norfolk LGBT Project continues to expand its services to and for the LGBT community in Norfolk & Waveney.

A CELEBRATION FOR EVERYONE

Welcome to Norwich Pride 2013. We're five years old and we're going to give the city the happiest birthday party it has ever seen! On Saturday 27 July we will turn Norwich into a rainbow – a universal symbol of love, harmony and peace and the international symbol of the LGBT community. We're going to have the biggest and most colourful Parade yet with a 50 metre rainbow flag from Exeter Pride. We've also got a wonderful Wigwam Stage and a host of brilliant acts for the Pride Show. The celebrations start early this year – we've booked the Forum from Monday 22 July for the Pride 5 Festival. We've also got the Pride without Prejudice exhibition at St Margarets Church of Art and events at the Bridewell Museum, Cinema City, Norwich Arts Centre and The Garage and loads of fabulous parties at LGBT-run venues. Norwich Pride is the celebration from the LGBT community for everyone – be part of it!

Proud of Who We Are

PRIDE 5 FESTIVAL

A five day festival to celebrate five years of Pride. There will be stalls, talks, displays and the Pride Shop in the Forum all week as well as Pride Art School at the Pride without Prejudice exhibition and events across the city. The Pride 5 Festival is funded with a grant from the Norfolk Community Fund and aims to give more people than ever before a chance to engage in the Pride celebrations.

PRIDE HOUSE

Central to this year's celebrations is the Pride House – an installation of art and photography in the Atrium of the Forum celebrating the history of Norwich Pride. With comfy sofas to relax in and tables to work on, the Pride House will be an inspirational meeting place.

FLYING THE FLAG

The rainbow flag will be flying on buildings all over Norwich including City Hall, County Hall, the Castle Museum, City College, Norfolk and Norwich Hospital, Hellesdon Hospital, Norfolk Fire and Rescue, Aviva, Jarrolds and Norwich Puppet Theatre. It is the most visual way an organisation can show that it celebrates diversity and values its LGBT citizens, customers, students and staff. This year we are also aiming for more shops than ever before to make rainbow window displays. You can buy rainbow flags and bunting from the Pride Shop. Email info@norwichpride.org.uk for more details.

We've got a Kids Zone with birthday party fun, Shelly Teddy bubbles and Carnival Crafts. Please note: it is a public park so no alcohol is allowed.

2-3PM

PRIDE PARADE

The Pride Parade is the emotional highpoint of the day and not to be missed. This year it is guaranteed to be the biggest and the brightest yet as we've got Exeter Pride's 50 metre long Rainbow Flag and there's a competition for best costumes. David Bullock, the Norwich Town Crier and Councillor Keith Driver, the Lord Mayor of Norwich, will launch the Parade and then wave to us from City Hall which will be bedecked in the Pride Scarf. We'll be led by the Norwich Samba Band and their dancers and you'll also find the Dun Dun Band, Musica de Brazil and club music from The Loft NR1.

PRIDE SHOW

This year we are delighted to bring you the Pride Show on the Wigwam Stage! It will look and sound fantastic on Millennium Plain outside the Forum and will provide the perfect showcase for some brilliant acts. We are thrilled that Ms Special K and Ms Krystal de Kanta are reforming the Killer Queens for one day only to host the show and that Raevannan Husbandes, winner of Future Radio's "Next Big Thing", will be performing. We've also got boy band Class A, Swedish singer Jan George, classical cross-over artist Jaden Cornelius, Pride favourite Eileen Mascoll, strictly fabulous dancers Is That Allowed?! and V-sign's Vicky Moore performing Bohemian Rhapsody like you've never seen it before.

5PM-6PM

PRIDE LIVE LOUNGE

EVENING EVENTS

There will be Pride Parties across the city. Check the map page for details of LGBT-run and LGBT-friendly venues. The Castle Pub's Pride Party includes Class A and Jan George from the Pride Show

ACCESS AT NORWICH PRIDE

Norwich Pride is for everyone and we welcome people of all ages and abilities. We aim to make each year's Pride more accessible and inclusive than the last. This year we have an Access Officer, Dean Simons, who has set up the Norwich Pride Access Group to consult with Pride-goers with access needs. Plans include:

- Specially trained access stewards in pink jackets
- Space at the front of the parade for disabled people and their supporters who would like to march together
- Enclosed Access Area for the Pride Show
- Help Desk at the Forum with information about venues, parking, accessible toilets etc
- British Sign Language (BSL) interpreters
- Loop system in the Curve
- Quiet rest area with comfortable seats on 2nd floor of library (please use lift at the back of library)
- Facebook and Twitter feed to follow the action at home
- Large print brochure available

For more information, details of blue badge parking, shopmobility, support groups: www.norwichpride.org.uk/access

Look out for this Access symbol designed by Reid Anthony Manson from the Norwich Pride Access Group.
