

Support for Pupils with Special Needs Award Sponsored by

The Lynn News Support for Pupils with Special Needs Award.

This category is aimed at special needs teams or individuals working within a conventional school. In your submission explain all the innovative and successful things you have done. As well as quantifiable evidence to support your case - for example improvements in attendance levels, parent engagement, exam results, working with partners in the local or business community. We also want to look beyond the traditional methods of measurement. So we are interested in real innovation across the board.
