

ADVANCED WORKSHOP IN AUTISM

FREE WORKSHOP

These workshops are for staff working with children and young people with autism in short breaks, respite or universal services.

This free workshop aims to give a deeper understanding of proactive approaches to behaviour in autism, including a low arousal approach with some tools and strategies to take away.

The outcomes of the workshop are to give you the confidence in using the tools from the workshop when working with families and the person with autism in a consistent manner.

You will need to have attended the Understanding and Responding to Autism workshop or similar workshop in order to have a place.

This FREE workshop is being delivered at the following venues.

NORWICH	25th June 2014	Woodside Centre Witard Road	6.30pm to 9.30pm
GREAT YARMOUTH	30th September 2014	King's Centre	6.30pm to 9.30pm
SWAFFHAM	16th October 2014	Green Britain Centre	9.30am to 12.30pm

To book a place on a free workshop and request an application form please email

michellemouldimpactbookings@yahoo.com