

- Get free access to The Reintroduction Hub an innovative wellbeing tool; designed by experts in response to C19
- Make sure your school community is aware of our 'Return to School' pages on Just One Norfolk
- Make sure everyone feels welcome in your school by using the free No Outsiders resources from Andrew Moffat and accessing free DiverseEd CPD
- Support your school's wellbeing using the free resources from Graham Andre's PSHE padlet

Thriving in education

@SEL_Norfolk_Sch

We are delighted to be back, especially as all reports suggest the children are equally as happy to be together again despite the necessary changes. We hope these resources will help your wellbeing as much as theirs and help everyone feel welcome!

the Reintroduction hub

This aims to minimise the impact C-19 will have had on our pupils' ability to interact, engage and excel within education. Click here for more.

It measures wellbeing, provides personalised and practical recovery plans, resources and pastoral curriculums, with minimal input from teachers.

We are delighted to be able to fund this in all Norfolk schools this term. Email us to register.

Our friends at Barnardos NI have created this lovely Back to School booklet which perfectly supports the PATHS strategies. Click here to access it and here for the high school

We have worked with our HCP partners to put together a wide range of resources and tools to support children and families in the full return to education. Please click here to have a look at the site and share with families and all staff.

The AFNCCF has a team that specialises in supporting families to protect children from parental conflict offering a range of interventions dependent on the family's circumstances. Family Ties remote program provides remote support for families who do not require intensive intervention but wish to better protect children from parental conflict. Free places are limited, click here for more info.

Be where you are celebrated, not tolerated.

#DiverseEd is a free virtual event celebrating and showcasing diversity, equality and inclusion in education.

Theme: Belonging

Tickets: Click here to book

Schedule: 9.00-13.00 on 17/10/20

Check out the new website: www.diverseeducators.co.uk and sign up for the newsletter.

Dates of upcoming PATHS events

13/10: New staff training 14-15.30h

15/10: Networking event 15-16h

Events will be virtual

Andrew Moffat

Hannah Wilson

Isa Buencamino

One of the aims of the PATHS programme is for children to develop empathy and compassion. This is vital for everyone's wellbeing and is needed for children to feel safe and welcome in schools. PATHS supports inclusion and diversity and has recommended the No Outsiders approach and resources as a great way to explore and challenge homophobic, racist, disablist and other prejudice behaviours. Click here for more info.

'Fast Forward Diversity and Inclusion' is a series of free webcast conversations with leading diversity and inclusion advocates and the most recent focused on Andrew Moffat the creator of No Outsiders. He talks about how important security is for children right now and how this very accessible approach is so relevant now as we reintroduce pupils to the classroom. You can find the recording here. Press the arrow to play.

I am also delighted to be able to share this padlet, full of PSHE resources, kindly created and shared by Graham Andre. Click here.