

Introduction to Managing Change and Projects

Strategies to implement change smoothly and successfully manage a project.

Some change and transformation projects within schools fail to fully hit their objectives due lack of planning, scoping, changing priorities, budget cuts or resources. Effective management of change can lead to significant positive outcomes.

Course Outline

This session focuses on what makes the difference and the essentials for success when implementing change. It outlines innovative tools, techniques and models that act as a framework for managing change and projects.

By the end of this session delegates will be able to:

- Successfully lead and manage change
- Appreciate the normal emotional journey when confronted with change, why we tend to resist change and how to accelerate progress around the cycle
- Understand the mechanics required to lead change successfully and meet the project objectives, dealing with issues and challenges
- Use a wide array of different tools, techniques and models to aid the approach to creativity, problem solving and decision making.

Please note, cancellations received within three working days of the course, or failure to cancel, will be subject to an administration charge of £50. Cancellations can be made by calling us on 01603 303355 via SLA Online, or by emailing governorservices@educatorsolutions.org.uk
