

Allegations of Misconduct

Allegations of misconduct and disciplinary situations, following established procedures.

It is vitally important for all managers to understand and follow the protocols for dealing with allegations of misconduct.

Course Outline

This session helps to assess what levels of misconduct warrant moving into a disciplinary process and how to manage that process effectively, in line with procedures and legislation.

By the end of this session delegates will be able to:

- Identify what constitutes misconduct and gross misconduct
- Understand the procedural and legal approach to disciplinary matters
- Address disciplinary matters in school with greater confidence
- Understand why case law and employment law is significant
- Identify the essential components of a good disciplinary process, including the investigation.

Please note, cancellations received within three working days of the course, or failure to cancel, will be subject to an administration charge of £50. Cancellations can be made by calling us on 01603 303355 via SLA Online, or by emailing governorservices@educatorsolutions.org.uk
