

Excellence in EAL Secondary Provision and Co-ordination

Do you have any EAL pupils in your school?

This 3 day course runs over three half terms and offers secondary schools the opportunity to review their EAL provision and ensure that they can deliver the best outcomes for their EAL pupils

Course Outline

This course will provide:

- An audit tool to review your existing EAL policies and procedures around admission, induction, assessment and monitoring progress
- Updates about policy (DfES, Ofsted, census requirements, EAL funding) and on current EAL research
- Templates to improve the process of admission and ensure the correct provision is in place for EAL from their arrival in school
- EAL assessment frameworks and resources to use in EAL initial language assessment
- Essential strategies to support EAL learners (from beginners to more advanced learners)
- Examples of documents such as EAL register, EAL profiles, EAL assessment frameworks
- Demonstrations of a variety of resources which support EAL, including English language learning software and online packages, bi-lingual resources and Apps
- Advice and resources to assist in the assessment of EAL pupils with SEN
- Information for parents and EAL communities e.g. English lessons (ESOL) , first language teaching for children and organisations providing new arrivals with support
- Guidance on access arrangements for EAL in GCSEs
- Information on first language GCSEs
- Information about supporting Unaccompanied Asylum Seekers / refugees
