

1 in 4 children cannot read well by the age of 11.¹ This limits their life choices and skills.

The Reading Agency and libraries are on a mission to change this with a UK-wide programme: the Summer Reading Challenge.

You can make a huge difference this year by encouraging your pupils to take part in the Challenge over the holidays. It's the UK's biggest reading for pleasure programme for primary school children in libraries - in 2023 we reached close to 700,000 children.

It's free to take part and all children are welcome.

➔ Benefits for pupils, families, and your school

Significantly improves children's reading skills and confidence

During last year's Challenge, children read over 14 million books

Prevents the summer 'dip' in reading and aids the successful transition to new year groups and key stages

FREE

It's simple and free for every child to take part, and libraries run free activities for families throughout the holidays

➔ Easy next steps

- Get in touch with the library to book a visit
- Talk about the Challenge in your classroom
- Tell parents about the Challenge

Find tips and free resources on page 2

What you can do now

Get parents and pupils engaged in the Challenge before the holidays start!

Talk about the Challenge in your classroom

- Put up posters in your classroom and around school
- Discover exciting new books to share with your class by browsing the Official Book Collection on summerreadingchallenge.org.uk
- Make use of our free activity sheets and other resources

All this and more is free to download from readingagency.org.uk

Get in touch with the library

Contact your local library service to find out what's on offer to your pupils.
You can book a visit or special assembly!

Tell parents

Download our handy newsletter templates to tell parents about the Challenge and encourage them to take their children to the library over the holidays.

Get everyone involved!
Encourage your school to beat last year's number of completers. Many libraries offer prizes to the schools with the most participants! Use our template to spread the word to your colleagues.

What you can do in September

Celebrate pupils' reading when they get back to school!

Present certificates in assembly

Organise a special assembly to present pupils' Summer Reading Challenge certificates. (They'll get the certificates for free from the library or online.) Or, you could use your school newsletter to congratulate children who have completed the Challenge.

Start dates*

Saturday 22 June in Scotland and online

Saturday 6 July in England and Wales

* Start and finish dates vary, so please check dates for your area with your local library service.

What's on in your area

2024 is all about creativity!

With this year's theme, Marvellous Makers, children will be able to find new reads linked to their favourite creative arts, and access free creative activities at the library. From dance to drawing, junk modelling to music, there's something for everyone!

● What is the Summer Reading Challenge?

The UK's biggest reading for pleasure programme for primary school children in libraries, encouraging children to read for fun during the school holidays.

● Who can take part?

The Summer Reading Challenge is a flexible programme, designed for all levels of ability. It is open to all children aged 4-11. Some library services also offer early years activities.

● When does it start and how can children sign up?

The Challenge runs throughout the summer holidays in the majority of UK public libraries. Children can sign up at any time during the Challenge period, either at the library or online at summerreadingchallenge.org.uk. Check start and finish dates with your local library service.

● What does the Challenge involve?

At the library:

- A child visits their local library to sign up and pick up a Summer Reading Challenge folder
- They set a reading goal and borrow books of their choice
- They collect bespoke stickers and incentives from the library for their reading, including a certificate for reaching their reading goal

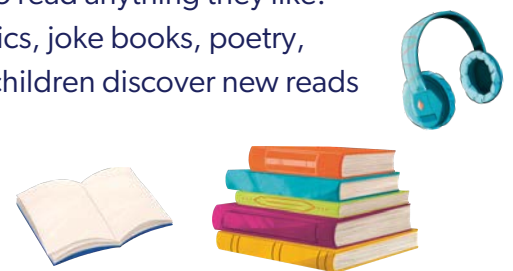

Online:

Alternatively, children can take part in the Challenge online at summerreadingchallenge.org.uk where they will set a reading goal and unlock digital rewards including a PDF certificate. They'll get book recommendations and tips for accessing books for free at home.

● What will children read for their Challenge?

The Challenge is all about reading for fun, so children can choose to read anything they like.

Really - anything! Audiobooks, e-books, fiction, non-fiction, comics, joke books, poetry, graphic novels... it all counts! Library staff and volunteers will help children discover new reads which suit their interests and reading level.
