Saatchi Gallery inspired artist-led workshops at Ipswich Art School

A rare opportunity to take part in an interactive tour of the gallery and creative workshop where pupils produce a piece of work inspired by the Saatchi Gallery. Workshops are led by professional contemporary artists who will adapt activities to meet all ages and abilities.

Making Objects

For Nursery, Primary, SEN pupils

Tuesday 19 October: led by local artist Caroline Wright

Thursday 11 November: led by local artist Caroline Wright

This workshop will give pupils an opportunity to respond to artworks in the gallery through making, focussing on assembling, constructing, fixing and joining. A range of materials that prompt specific usage will be provided and pupils will be encouraged to challenge accepted use of these materials developing their creative thinking, process and exploration.

Be a critic

For KS3, GCSE, AS, A2 and FE students

Friday 15th October: led by local artist Claudia Boese

Wednesday 10th November: led by local artist Caroline Wright

This session aims to give students a simple vocabulary of visual language and understanding how to assemble this vocabulary into a coherent story when responding to an art exhibition. Students will record their responses to the Saatchi exhibition using writing and drawing as a direct visual record of their observation, feeling or thought. Within the workshop students will have the opportunity to share their awareness and opinions effectively.

Booking details:

Group size: Max 30 pupils per workshop (Min charge - 20 pupils)

Cost: £4 non-borough pupils and £3.50 borough pupils

Workshops: 10-11.30am, 12-1.30pm, 2-3.30pm

Self-led visits and tours are also available

If you are bringing two groups or more, or would like to stay longer, you could combine a workshop with a self-led visit to Ipswich Museum or to the Wolsey Art Gallery at Christchurch Mansion. A lunchroom is available at no additional cost if you book a workshop. This must be booked in advance.
