Globe Education Teacher INSET

Friday 26th November 2011

2.00 pm – 4.00 pm

(This also includes a tour backstage of The Merry Wives of Windsor production set)

Venue: Theatre Royal Norwich and The Garage

Cost of event: £35.00 per person

We are delighted to offer this rare opportunity of working with Shakespeare's Globe as part of your professional development. This Teacher Inset session is led by Globe Education Practitioners and aims to enable teachers to develop sustainable, practical skills, exploring collaborative and creative approaches to learning. The session focuses on the teacher as a creative artist and explores ways of translating the skills gained at Shakespeare's Globe into the classroom.

Plays are written 'merely to be spoken' according to Shakespeare's contemporary John Marston. He agreed to publish a play so that readers might recall its performance, or what he termed 'the soul of lively action'. Teachers - perhaps better than anyone - know the challenges involved in bringing texts to life. For twenty years, Globe Education has worked with teachers to develop new and exciting ways of exploring Shakespeare's works. We seek to create active, practical approaches to Shakespeare that will inspire, enhance and develop classroom practice - and bring Shakespeare's words to life through 'the soul of lively action'.

All teachers are very welcome but numbers are limited; please return the attached booking form to reserve your place, or telephone our Education Department for more information.
