

Meet the Victorians at Gressenhall Farm and Workhouse

Was the Workhouse So Bad? (KS3)

Explore Victorian attitudes to poverty, morality and social responsibility. Students meet and debate with three costumed characters: the workhouse master, a male inmate and an unmarried mother. They make up their own minds about conditions in the workhouse and decide on the fate of the two inmates.

Available dates week commencing 15 November 2010

A Victorian Christmas (KS2)

Meet costumed characters to find out about the lives of rich and poor Victorians. Compare a Victorian Christmas with our 21st century celebrations and help to solve a 'Dickensian' mystery. Take part in festive dancing, make traditional decorations and help to prepare the Christmas meal.

November: 23, 24, 25, 30 December: 7, 8, 9 2010
