Leading Improvement Seminar for Headteachers - Autumn Term 2010

Chris Snudden and Robin Ings continue to offer headteachers an opportunity to attend these sessions twice a year in order to explore key improvement priorities locally and nationally. This term the seminars begin after half term as we receive the outcome of the spending review and the publication of the White Paper. We should know more about the Pupil Premium and the Government's ambitions for leadership, standards, learning and teaching and the curriculum. The sessions will be designed to give time to discuss some the key proposals and enable headteachers to explore together the implications for the future.

The agenda will include:

- Attainment and Progress in Norfolk Schools
- Narrowing the gap for vulnerable groups – A key resource
- OFSTED update –Removal of the SEF / SEND / Outcomes of school inspections in Norfolk and key themes
- Norfolk's most improved schools – what's working
- Curriculum messages
- The White Paper

These sessions are a key forum for headteachers to meet and discuss the future for primary school education as well as to hear about successful improvement strategies that are making a difference. To book a place please visit our website at:
