What does NAFpHT do?

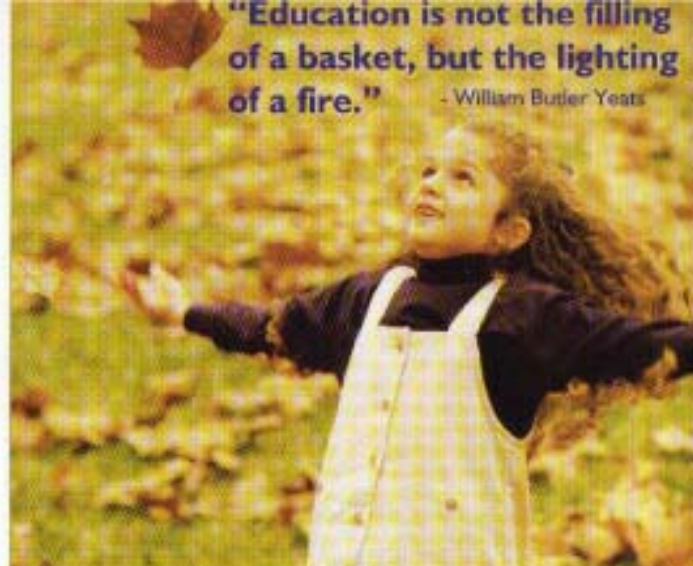

Welcome to the Norfolk Association for Primary Head Teachers (NAFpHT). This Association has been active in Norfolk for 20 years. It comprises both current and former Headteachers and leaders in Norfolk, providing support, advice and networking opportunities for the county's Headteachers and School Leaders. We have no membership, simply inviting everyone to join in the opportunities for getting together that we provide. Please register on the website for upcoming events: www.nafpht.co.uk

What do we provide?

NAFpHT provides:

- an accessible and friendly group of Headteachers & school leaders who are committed to supporting colleagues
- a non-judgemental and confidential group
- opportunities for professionals to share, celebrate and problem-solve together
- a group who are passionate about children's learning
- a forum in which to share ideas and information about the latest local, national and international initiatives and research
- opportunities for us to improve our understanding of leadership
- opportunities for facilitating purposeful and focussed networking & debate, formally and informally
- conferences engaging high quality speakers
- exciting, fun and informative research visits to various parts of the country
- acting as a catalyst, working with the L.A. to initiate various projects

"Education is not the filling of a basket, but the lighting of a fire." - William Butler Yeats

Norfolk Association for Primary Headteachers & Leaders:

We believe that our children in Norfolk deserve the very best education. To this end we work to improve leadership for learning by supporting each other and providing opportunities for networking, sharing and debating

"Too often we give our children answers to remember rather than problems to solve."

- Roger Lewin
