

The F Word! – The Forgiveness Project comes to the Hostry

November 22nd – December 3rd 2010

Norwich Cathedral's state of the Art Education Centre.

The 'F Word' is a well established secular exhibition and has international recognition. Endorsed by Desmond Tutu it has been shown in The OXO Tower London, various international exhibition venues, cathedrals, and prisons up and down the country as well as being shown on television and radio. It contains stories evoking understanding of the issues surrounding, hurt, pain injustice, abuse and forgiveness. This will be open to the general public of Norwich and Norfolk but specifically for pupils looking at Sociology, Psychology, RS, Philosophy, PSHE. This will be helpful for GCSE age groups and 6th Forms due to the content.

The exhibition is FREE

Contact Nic Tivey - Norwich School for details 01603 728450 (ntivey@norwich-school.org.uk)

OR Juliett Corbett Schools Officer 01603 218320 (education@cathedral.org.uk)

If you have a group of more than 20 could you please ring to make a booking to limit numbers.