

Cinema City Schools Screening: FIT

Thursday 17th February 2011, 9.45am, Cinema City

Cinema City have got a special free screening of the Stonewall feature film FIT for LGBT History Month. The event is part of their education programme and is for school parties only.

FIT is a powerful and entertaining film about six young people in a Dance and Drama class that is designed to complement DfE Guidance and help teachers tackle homophobic bullying in schools. Research by Stonewall, the national lesbian, gay and bisexual (LGB) charity, states that two thirds of LGB young people experience homophobic bullying, yet 9 in 10 teachers have never received any training on how to prevent and respond to it. FIT uses hip-hop, humour, colourful Adidas tracksuits and lively writing to communicate with pupils.

The film will be introduced by David Mills, Stonewall Youth Volunteer, and Nick O'Brien, teacher and organiser of Norwich Pride.

"Brilliant! The best anti-bullying film I've ever seen.
Should make a real difference" Sir Ian McKellen.
