NORWICH
PUPPET
THEATRE

EASTERN REGION PUPPETRY SHOWCASE

4.30 - 6.30pm Wednesday 2 February 2011

NORWICH PUPPET THEATRE

You are invited to an evening of puppetry at Norwich Puppet Theatre, this region's centre for puppetry and related arts, to view 6 extracts from shows performed by local companies as part of their national tours.

Drinks and nibbles from 4pm.

Norwich Puppet Theatre - Indefinite Articles - Banyan Theatre Company - Polka Theatre - Garlic Theatre - Nutmeg Theatre - Crooked Timber Theatre - Ripstop Theatre -

You will have the opportunity to:

- Choose shows that fit with the needs of your school.
- Meet the artists
- Gain an insight into how puppetry can add creativity to your curriculum, especially in the areas of literacy and language development, design and technology and science.
- Discuss with the Companies how they can develop their educational resources to leave a lasting legacy to the school after their visit.

The Norwich Puppet Theatre also offers a range of creative puppet making for workshops for all ages, which can all be tailored to your topic or project.

As well as being able to discuss your requirements with our workshop leaders there will be an opportunity to create a simple puppet to take home with you.
