

Dance, Drama and Music Young People's Project (Ipswich)

Venue: The project team will be based at Ipswich Museum but the team will choose one of three possible venues for their work:

Ipswich Museum, Ipswich Art School or Christchurch Mansion.

Provisional Dates:

- The project will run on Saturday afternoons between 2pm and 4pm (timings may vary depending on the nature of the activity that day)
- It will begin on Sat 5th Feb with a briefing for applicants (recruitment of volunteers to take place throughout January)
- The project will officially run between Sat 12th Feb and finish with an event on Sat 9th April 2011.
- Event feedback/evaluation session Sat 16th April 2011
- Total of 10-12 weeks of activities and events.

Young people will be expected to take part in the all or the majority of sessions showing a strong commitment to this project and the team.

Roles for young people

- Creative roles in drama, music and dance to produce a piece of interpretation or take part in a performance inspired by the collection
- Events planning roles to plan event, order materials, support performers, and coordinate event
- Marketing roles to promote the launch of this work

Age Range

This opportunity is for young people aged 14-16 years.

Partners

Young people will have the chance to visit the Jerwood DanceHouse (DanceEast) and the Theatre Royal in Bury St Edmunds. Inspiration from these visits and a drumming workshop will inform the shape of their project.

Opportunity to...

- Develop literacy, numeracy, and IT skills, as well as range of project management skills including working as a team, good communication and time and budget management.
- Gain knowledge of museums service and wider cultural offer and take part by having your say on young people's panels in the future.
- Enhance your CV or personal statements for university/college or job applications.
- Make new friends with shared interests.
- Leave a legacy in what you produce to be used by other young people
