

A conference for religious education professionals
Organised jointly by the University of Huddersfield and Kirklees SACRE

Treading on egg shells? Tackling difficult topics in religious education

Friday 18 March 2011

10.00am to 3.15pm

Lockside building, University of Huddersfield

Keynote speaker Professor Mark Halstead, University of Huddersfield
Diversity, spirituality and truth: RE in the contemporary world

Speakers and workshops on difficult issues in RE including:
Teaching about terrorism
Religion and sexuality

The opportunity to discuss difficult issues in RE with fellow RE professionals, share your experiences and share good practice.

The conference is FREE with lunch provided thanks to the support from NATRE, Kirklees SACRE and the University of Huddersfield
Enquiries to Alastair Ross alastair.ross@kirklees.gov.uk or Dr Emma Salter e.salter@hud.ac.uk

Please book me a place on this conference!

Name.....School/organisation.....

Contact address.....

.....

Telephone.....E-mail.....

Please indicate if you have any dietary or mobility requirements

.....

Return to: Elizabeth Rowlands, Children & Young People Service—Learning, Deighton Centre, Huddersfield HD21JP or e-mail details to elizabeth.rowlands@kirklees.gov.uk
Joining details and programme will be sent nearer the time.