

CALLING ALL YOUNG ARTISTS!

It's not too late to get involved in this term's Young People's Saturday Art Club!!

As from Autumn Term 2010 Young People's Saturday Art Club has taken up residence in Colchester and Ipswich Museum's new contemporary art space The Ipswich Arts School Gallery. Offering an even more vibrant and stimulating opportunity to respond to the rolling programme and collections, old and new.

These fun and experimental art clubs enable participants to work with practicing artists to discover new techniques and develop artistic ideas.

Our team of experienced artist educators will guide groups through a variety of traditional and new media so you can get more out of the exhibitions on display within the Museum and the new Gallery.

Fortnightly sessions throughout the term for:

- 7(8) – 11ys
 - 11+
- p/ term £45. Materials included
(latecomers welcome throughout term fees reduced from date of enrolment) pay per session on request @ £10.

This term young participants will have the opportunity to use the new show The Class of... as a backdrop. Art Club sessions will be reflecting on the exhibition looking at the idea of Art School. Sessions will look at techniques, mediums and concepts etc.

The Class of... exhibition focuses on past Ipswich Art School teachers and students, covering a variety of disciplines from life drawing, print, design and sculpture. Artists include Maggi Hambling, Tom Philips, Colin Moss, Bernard Reynolds, Lawrence Self, Richard Scott, Leonard Squirrel to name but a few. Current students from UCS and SNC will also take over gallery space and throughout the six months will provide a rotating range of displays and studio work.
