

Supporting Minimus Latin course for primary schools at Norwich Castle

“Milites audite” (soldiers listen) and “milites procedite” (soldiers advance) barks the Roman centurion as he drills his new recruits

I am writing to let you know of an exciting new initiative, two special days at Norwich Castle Museum for primary schools who are following (or considering following) the Minimus Latin course.

Children participate in four active and challenging sessions designed to consolidate their learning and bring Latin to life. During the day they meet a Roman soldier and other costumed characters, handle real Roman objects, use poetry and plays to improve their Latin and explore the museum's Roman gallery.

'It was brilliant! ' KS2 student

'A fantastic day, I enjoyed as much as the children' KS2 teacher

Monday 31st March, 10–14.15

This day is for KS2 pupils already using Minimus. We are delighted that Barbara Bell, the author of Minimus, is joining us and there will be an opportunity for children to ask prepared questions.

Charge £2 per student

Thursday 23rd June, 10-14.15

This day is aimed at KS2 children who have not done any Latin and is especially suitable for schools thinking about starting it.

Charge £2 per student

For more information and to book please contact Becky Brown, Bookings Administrator on 01603 493636, becky.brown@norfolk.gov.uk

Colly Mudie
Museum Learning Manager
www.museums.norfolk.gov.uk

Jane Maguire
Gifted & Talented Co-ordinator
Partnership of East Norfolk Schools