

Get Started with Dance & Production

With The Prince's Trust

Prince's Trust

The Prince's Trust is working in partnership with Open Youth Venue and The Garage to deliver it's first Get Started with Dance & Production programme.

Funded by the Lind Trust and the Arts Council, Get Started with Dance & Production is a Free Training Programme, which will be running in March.

Young people can follow a Dance Pathway lead by The Garage, or a Production Pathway lead by Open. They will work together to stage an informal showcase of their work at the end of the project. The programme will take place at Open Youth Venue, Norwich.

It is specifically targeted at young people Not in Employment, Education, or Training, aged 16 to 25, who would like to learn new skills and gain new qualifications.

Everyone will have the opportunity to:

- ➔ Develop communication, team work, confidence, and self belief.
- ➔ Take Part in Next Steps and Progression Workshops.
- ➔ Meet new people, and make new friends.
- ➔ Gain a nationally recognised qualification in Arts Practice and Leadership: Bronze Arts Award from Trinity College London

Dance Pathway - 10th - 25th March 11 (part time)

- Have a go at different styles of dancing, break dance and street dance, and work towards an informal showcase of work, with professional dance artists from The Garage, a specialist creative and performing arts organisation for young people.
- Explore different pathways in dance, meet professionals, and develop skills

Production Pathway - 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th March 11

- Have a go at lighting, sound and theatre production. Learn how to set scenes, wire a stage ready for bands, DJ's and performers. Work with leading industry professionals from OPEN and Saturn Entertainments who have worked with acts such as Kano, Example, Akala, and Basshunter.
- Explore different pathways in sound and lighting engineering, learn on industry standard equipment, meet professionals and develop skills.

There will also be 3 months of after programme support which is there to help explore and access employment, further education, training, or volunteering opportunities.

Young people's travel costs will be re-inbursed.

Young People who are interested in this programme must attend an Information/Taster Session on Friday 18th February at Open Youth Venue.
