

DO SOMETHING DIFFERENT IN 2011!

EXTRAS NEEDED FOR DINING WITH ALICE NORFOLK & NORWICH FESTIVAL

Dining with Alice is a spectacular performance set in the gardens of a country house in which the audience is invited to a magical, if topsy-turvy, theatrical dinner party hosted by the White Rabbit, the Mad Hatter, the King and Queen of Hearts, and an Alice who keeps changing her size.

We're looking for local people to play extras in this ambitious show performed at Elsing Hall on 12 - 15 & 18 - 21 May as part of the Norfolk and Norwich Festival.

Performing in costume as part of a company you will work with professional actors and perform in character interacting with the audience and other performers. Ideally you will have some experience of performing, but this is not essential. Join up on your own or with friends to share the experience! There are lots of opportunities available. We are looking for:

- ♥ Individuals (aged 16-106) willing to play crucial extras in the show
- ♠ Singers – either individuals or a choir – to take part in the finale concert and doubling as an extra
- ♦ Six girls (age 6-16 yrs) to play Alice herself (separate auditions will be held for these parts) – short and tall girls very welcome!

This is a once in a lifetime opportunity brought to you by Artichoke, the creative company who bring to life extraordinary events such as The Sultan's Elephant and Antony Gormley's Fourth Plinth project One & Other – don't miss out!
