

Dereham Neatherd High School

warmly invites you to attend the official opening of the

Specialist Resource Base for Autism

by

Ros Blackburn

Thursday 7th April 2011

5:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Followed by Ros Blackburn's FREE talk

Logically Illogical

5:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Ros Blackburn is an adult with autism. As an infant she was diagnosed as being severely autistic.

In her talk entitled Logically Illogical, Ros describes many aspects of autism and gives an invaluable insight into her own world of autism. She talks about her history from her early diagnosis to the present time using humour to talk about the positive as well as negative sides of living with autism.

To confirm your attendance at either of these completely FREE events (refreshments provided) please email: sally_mcdermott@neatherd.org or telephone: 01362 69 79 81 ext.158 by Friday 1st April 2011
(Parents, carers and professionals welcome)

Dereham Neatherd High School, Norwich Road, Dereham NR20 3AX