

Health and safety premises management training courses – new dates

Further dates for this three part course have been arranged on the dates below. All courses are held at the County Hall Annexe, Norwich.

This suite of courses is designed to support people responsible for premises management to effectively manage within Norfolk County Council's guidelines and best practice and to fulfil legal responsibilities.

Part 1 - 5th April 2011 - County Hall Annexe, Norwich

Part 1 is aimed to provide you with a practical understanding of Norfolk County Council's systems and requirements for managing premises and the associated health and safety and risk management issues.

Part 2 (asbestos) 13 April 2011 - County Hall Annexe, Norwich

Part 2 is designed for people who are responsible for premises that contain asbestos and need to understand how to manage asbestos effectively.

Part 3 (fire safety risk assessment) 27 April 2011 – Neatherd High School, Dereham

Part 3 is for people responsible for premises fire risk assessments, equipping you to undertake an assessment and interpret plans/risk assessments completed by others.
