A talk by Maggi Hambling, OBE, CBE, one of Britain's most distinguished artists on her time at Ipswich Art School during the 1960's. This will be a chance for the artist to talk about her artwork in The Class Of... display. This is an exhibition that shows work from influential students and teachers from Ipswich Art School including Lawrence Self, Colin Moss, Tom Phillips and Bernard Reynolds.

"My time at Ipswich Art School was crucial, the various disciplines of painting, drawing, sculpture and printmaking were strongly instilled in me. Each one continues to play its part in my work."

Maggi Hambling, OBE, CBE, celebrated artist and former IAS pupil

This talk is in aid of the fundraising appeal to help buy the former Ipswich Art School building and create a new centre of excellence for modern and contemporary art. Every pound donated brings the fundraising target of £600k by March 2012 closer, enabling the purchase and restoration of this facility before it is lost forever as a public space.

Find out more on the fundraising appeal at www.ipswichartschool.co.uk or keep in touch, get regular updates and chat to us online by joining us on Facebook and Twitter@IpswichArtSch.

The Class Of... exhibition runs at the Art School until 12th June at the Ipswich Art School.
