"It's a privilege to be involved with FILMCLUB... Listening to the children talk about film and seeing the impact the club was having on their school life, and on their social and cultural life, confirmed to me how very important this initiative is."

Michael Sheen, actor and FILMCLUB Ambassador

"I think FILMCLUB is a fantastic idea, I urge any school to get involved in it. Films are stories and everyone loves stories... it's how we learn about ourselves."

Julie Walters, actor

After-school film adventures

FILMCLUB is a free service for primary and secondary state schools that provides pupils and teachers with the chance to explore the world of film through after-school film clubs. With weekly screenings, online reviewing, industry events and hands-on support, FILMCLUB inspires, excites and opens new avenues for learning.

Watching a vibrant mix of films together has proven social and educational benefits. In a recent survey of teachers involved in the scheme, we found that FILMCLUB...

- ★ 94% develops children's critical reasoning skills
- ★ 81% makes children more positive about school
- ★ 88% broadens children's cultural understanding
- ★ 86% strengthens children's communication skills
- ★ 82% integrates isolated and disengaged children

Teachers receive:

- One to one teacher support, advice and training
- Thousands of DVDs available to order online with free delivery
- Great website tools to lead clubs on adventurous film journeys
- Inspirational film industry interaction and events in school
- Free promotional materials, membership cards and posters

"Film is a great way of establishing informal interaction between students and staff, and can enrich the lives of students through shared experience and discussion."
