

NORFOLK MUSIC SERVICE

presents

NORFOLK HIGH SCHOOLS' CHOIR FESTIVAL

with

Norfolk County Symphonic Wind Band (conductor David Stowell)

involving 500 young singers and instrumentalists from High Schools across Norfolk.

St. Andrew's Hall, Norwich

Thursday 20 October 2011 @ 7.30pm

Tickets: £5 adults - on the door, children free.

programme includes

Medley from Les Miserables;

Chasing Cars & Run (Snow Patrol);

Spirituals & Folksongs;

And the glory of the Lord (Handel);

Ave Verum (Mozart).

Festival Choir Conductor: Richard Allain (Director of Music, Norwich School). Richard Allain's compositions and arrangements encompass a wide range of styles, including music theatre, sacred choral music and works for children. He has been commissioned to write music for BBC Radio 2, 3 and 4. Richard has worked with many of the country's leading choirs and musicians; his music has appeared at the BBC Proms, and is composer in association to the National Youth Choirs of Great Britain

For further info, contact David O'Neale
(david.oneale@norfolk.gov.uk 0789 9076297)