Primary History Conference

Planning for Engaging and Challenging History at KS2

30th March 2012

9.00am – 3.30pm

Norwich Professional Development Centre

This exciting one day conference is aimed at members of staff who teach or have a responsibility for history. It will explore a variety of ideas for creating engaging and rigorous learning in the subject. You will leave with a number of ideas and approaches that you can take back to your classroom and schools. Participants will also learn about the key findings from the latest HMI report on history, inspection findings and recommendations.

National speakers will include Dr Michael Maddison (HMI and National Adviser for History) and Andrew Wrenn (author and History Advisor for Cambridgeshire).

- * Awareness of National and local developments and issues in History
- * Explore a range of planning and teaching approaches
- * Gain practical strategies and ideas to use within the classroom
