

Training Event: Domestic, Sexual and Honour Based Abuse, 14 March 2012, West Norfolk Professional Development Centre

In September 2011, guidance was issued to schools regarding the Prevention of Forced Marriage and Female Genital Mutilation during Extended Visits Overseas and a free training event was offered to SDPs on 28th November 2011. Due to the positive feedback, further training has been organised on 14th March 2012 at West Norfolk Professional Development Centre for those who were unable to attend the first session.

Audience: Designated Professionals for Safeguarding

Aims:

To ensure you have a full understanding of domestic, sexual and honour based abuse.

Objectives:

- Explain dynamics of Domestic Abuse (DA), Sexual Abuse (SA) & Honour Based Abuse (HBA) used on/by young people;
- Recognise the signs of abuse using examples;
- Barriers for victims to get help and report to police;
- Identify partner/3rd Sector agencies that can help victims of DA, SA & HBA.

Course booking:

To book a place on the training, please apply via www.cpd.norfolk.gov.uk by searching for course reference ENSC2. Spaces will be limited to no more than two per setting and will be allocated on a first come first served basis. Refreshments will be provided. The course is free to attend, but please note there will be a £20 per person administration fee for non-attendance or if cancelled within 10 working days of the course date.

On-Line Training: Forced Marriage

In addition, the Forced Marriage Unit has designed a free e-learning training package to support professionals, including education staff that may have to deal with forced marriage in the course of their work. Using real life case studies, the training will give professionals a basic understanding of the key issues surrounding forced marriage, how cases can present and how to respond appropriately. It is recommended that the SDP and other staff who have a responsibility for managing safeguarding and school attendance access this training. This tool complements the multi-agency practice guidelines for professionals and should be read alongside the training.
