Linking Languages and Literacy

What is it about?

Learning a foreign language at KS2 enhances children's knowledge of and performance in literacy.

This course investigates how learning more than one (foreign) language can enrich key concepts of language structure and language learning strategies.

What will I get out of it?

- explore how learning a new language can raise standards in literacy
- apply framework objectives to practical teaching and learning activities that are relevant to both literacy and languages.

This will include:

- parts of speech, punctuation and simple grammar
- word derivation and decoding words
- developing reading strategies for fiction and non fiction
- confidence in speaking and engaging orally with peers
- investigate how the learning of more than one (foreign) language can enrich key concepts of language structure and language learning strategies.
