

FREE Event – Saturday 10th March 2012 at 11am

To celebrate the start of 'English Tourism Week' the VisitColchester Information Centre is laying on a FREE guided walking tour - 'Camulodunum to Colchester' - at 11am on Saturday the 10th March. Meet at the VisitColchester Information Centre at 1 Queen Street. This is an ideal opportunity for residents to be visitor's in their own town for a day and discover Colchester's heritage from a visitor's perspective! The tour is free but donations are welcome to the Friends of Colchester Roman Wall who are raising money to improve the interpretation of one of Colchester's most important historical assets. Places are limited, bookings taken on the day only on a first come first served basis

Also, on Saturday 10th March, drop-in between 10am until 12.30 when Wilkin and Son, the world -famous Tiptree Jam makers are at the VisitColchester Information Centre providing a free mouth-watering and traditional tea time treat; scones, jam and cream! The scones are made by the Wilkins and the jam is of course one of their famous fruity flavours.
