Ready Eddy Needs Your Help!

Ready Eddy would like some posters to liven up
Norfolk Prepared Week, 6th-12th October 2012.
The week is all about preparing for emergencies.

Ready Eddy would like pictures of any kind of emergency: fire, flood, storm, snow, earthquake etc or pictures about preparing for an emergency.

Posters will be judged in three age groups: Reception-Yr 2, Yr 3-4 & Yr 5-6. The winning child from each age group will win a personal tour of their local fire station (for four people) plus £100 for their school. Winners and runners up will receive a certificate. All participating schools will get a certificate.

Shortlisted and winning entries will be displayed at
The Forum, Norwich on Saturday 6th October.

A4 or A3 size. Please put the name of the school, the child's name and year group on the reverse.

If you are intending to take part, please email the Resilience Team at epu@norfolk.gov.uk by 22nd June with Ready Eddy in the subject line. The competition closes on 20th July.

Send entries via school courier to:
Ready Eddy C/O The Resilience Team, Room 101, County Hall.
(Last courier dates are 16th & 17th July.)

Winners will be informed 1st October.
