Aspiring and New Middle Leaders in Secondary Schools

Teachers aspiring to lead a department or those recently appointed often need guidance on the expectations of their new role and how to meet these expectations.

This course will highlight the key areas that middle leaders should be aware of and share good practice from leading Subject Leaders.

What will I get out of it?

How to create and share a vision for the department.

- Understand how to lead and manage a group of professionals.
- Develop your understanding of Teaching and Learning evaluation, and monitoring.
