Introduction to Coaching

This course is for school leaders or teachers who wish to introduce coaching as a vehicle for staff CPD.

Coaching offers a means by which teachers can deepen their awareness and understanding of what goes on in their classrooms; their effectiveness as teachers and their own and their pupils' learning. It puts teachers in control of their own professional development ultimately impacting on teaching and learning.

Participants will be able to look at materials focused on coaching and begin to develop skills in holding a coaching conversation.
