Promoting Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Development and Ofsted Imperative

With Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Development (SMSC) assessed in the New OFSTED framework as significantly contributing to the judgement of overall effectiveness, it is imperative for schools to ensure these elements remain a central and important aspect of their core purpose. This input will support schools with reviewing their current provision and will explore a range of ways to develop SMSC, both formally and informally, as a whole school approach.
