

Education for All Conference 2012

5 July 2012, The British Library, London

Challenging homophobia and celebrating difference

The full programme for Britain's main event for education and youth professionals has now been released. Join us and learn how to celebrate difference, support gay young people and tackle homophobic bullying.

Speakers include:

Stephen Twigg MP, Shadow Education Secretary

Mark Thompson, Director-General, BBC

Venessa Wimms, Principal, King Solomon Academy, Ark Schools and Ben Summerskill, Chief Executive, Stonewall

Be the first to discuss the findings of our latest research into the experiences of lesbian, gay and bisexual pupils and levels of homophobic bullying in Britain's schools, The School Report 2012.

Attend workshops and explore practical ways to prevent and tackle homophobic bullying.
Find out how national policies, including the new Ofsted inspection for schools, can help your work.
Hear directly from young people and learn how to involve them in your work to stamp out homophobic bullying.

Click here to download the full programme and book your place now

supported by

