- Summer Camp

Our summer brochure is out now and places are already booking up. Our themed weeks; a chance for young people to try out a range of creative activity centred on a pivotal style, will be running from 24th July - 3rd August. Following this, our Vintage Summer Production of 'Cinderella' will run from 6th August - 18th August.

We are able to offer a limited number of discounted places (25% off) for families in receipt of income related benefits. We also have some free places available for families who live in the NR5 8 area and are in receipt of income related benefits.

We are working with Norfolk Children's University to offer these activities as part of children's recognized learning hours. Attendance at one themed week is worth 20hrs-80% of a silver certificate!

Book an assembly - If you would like The Garage to come to your school or organisation and talk to your young people about our summer activities then contact us and we will organise a day to come and do an assembly.

- Word Up!

*Summer Intensive 31st July - 3rd Aug
10.30am-2.30pm
FREE places available*

You've studied them, learnt them and recited them; now learn how to write them! This is a scriptwriting class for young adults with a passion for theatre... Come and take your theatre skills to the next level.

This course will develop over 3 terms and although attendance at all 3 isn't mandatory it is advised.

To book, please contact Toni Bentley

- American Trail

As part of our Vintage Summer @ The Garage season and the Norfolk American Trail project (co-ordinated by Norfolk Libraries and the Norfolk Museums Service) 20 young people will have the chance to partake in a FREE seven day film workshop. Not only will they be involved in the writing of the script, they will also have the chance to perform in the film if they wish as well as helping to put together the final edit of the film.

The project will look at the historical links between Norfolk and North America and be loosely based on local people's memories from the Second World War. This is an opportunity for young people to participate and engage in an aspect of Norfolk's history as well as hopefully gaining a greater understanding of local history and international connections.

The film will be premiered at The Garage as part of the Vintage Summer 2012 performance showcase in late August and will also feature on the BBC Big Screen outside Chapelfield Mall.

We are currently recruiting for 20 young people aged 14-20yrs, including 2 peer mentors who will ideally have some filmmaking experience.

Summer Funding

This year we have not secured funding to be able to offer FREE bursary places outside of the NR5 8 area outlined in our charitable objectives. However, if you would like to assist young people in securing funding from elsewhere, you may like to try these links as a starting point -

Luke Day adventure Fund - applications must be made by schools for individuals who are under 18yrs old: <http://www.norfolkfoundation.com/Luke-Day-Adventure-Fund.htm>

The Joanna Scott Foundation - applications should be made by parents/guardians or young people themselves aged up to 25yrs and living within 5 miles of Norwich City Hall: <http://www.foundationofjoannascott.org.uk/>

COMING UP....

- Writing Britain

A new project working with Norfolk Library's Service for 10 young people aged 16-24yrs outside of formal education. Participants will work over 6 months to curate an exhibition of literary resources relating to a sense of place - focusing on water in Norfolk and to produce a live or recorded performance to mark the opening and closing of the exhibition.

If you have a group who would be interested in being involved please contact Toni Bentley

- Curtain Up

Our groundbreaking seasons of edgy, fringe style theatre programmed with young people in mind are set to continue in October and November (funding decision pending). All tickets are £7.50 over 25yrs and £5 under 25yrs with 1 free leader ticket for 10 students/young people. Full details will be online from July.

ONGOING...

- Big Breaks

This is a funding scheme designed to support young people from disadvantaged circumstances to take part in a full year of our regular, weekly activities - our creative classes. You can nominate young people for a place using our Referral Form. There are no set criteria & awards are offered at our discretion.

For places starting in Autumn 2012, we are encouraging referrals for senior streetdance and breakdance companies and particularly for ages 12-25yrs due to new funding. For dance referrals we can also offer some travel assistance if necessary.

Classes are open for public booking from 30th July so the first deadline for receipt of referrals is Friday 20th July. As the Autumn term starts on October 1st, late referrals will be considered until 21st September subject to availability. Referrals which cannot be accommodated this term will be kept on file for consideration for the Spring 2013 term.
