ugly duckling

a ballet for children

Northern Ballet is creating and performing this original short ballet made specifically for children aged four and above. The aim of the programme is to introduce children and families to the theatre and to experience a ballet for the first time.

A poor duckling is lonely and fed-up, shunned by those around her who see her as too ugly to fit in. Follow the duckling on her journey as she overcomes her troubles and turns into a beautiful swan, beginning a happy new life.

Retelling the famous Hans Christian Anderson fairy-tale, Northern Ballet's Ugly Duckling is the perfect opportunity to introduce young children, as well as families, to the magic of live ballet, music and theatre for the first time.

Northern Ballet dancers Dreda Blow and Sebastian Loe are choreographing Ugly Duckling and they will replicate the high quality production values that Northern Ballet is known for. The performances will be fun and light-hearted, challenging preconceptions about live theatre and dance.

The performances are going to take place on Friday 3rd May 2013 at 11.00am and 1.00pm and are approximately forty-five minutes long.

Ticket Prices: £5.00 Adults £4.00 Children
