

October 2012

Please share this with your school's Anti-Bullying Lead, PSHE Lead, Pastoral Lead and Heads of Year.

Anti-Bullying Week, 19- 23 November 2012

"We're better without bullying"

With less than 4 weeks to go until Anti-Bullying Week 2012 here are some activities to help you prepare:

1) Download free briefing papers

Download our free briefing papers for school leaders and teachers, governors, youth workers, further education colleges and parents and carers

2) Download free activities

Download free activities to support the campaign, including assembly presentations, lesson plans and group activities.

3) Order your campaign pack

Order the official Anti-Bullying Week 2012 campaign pack. It has all you need to take part in the week including posters, stickers, cake toppers and pin badges - and fundraising ideas including a 'Love buns' recipe donated by Levi Roots. Order by 5 November to make sure you receive your materials in time for the week. To order visit the ABA shop today.

4) Plan a fundraiser and you could win 100 books for your school or college

Random House Publishers have agreed to donate 100 books to the school or college that can raise the most amount of money for the Anti-Bullying Alliance this Anti-Bullying Week. Order the campaign pack for great fundraising ideas or visit the fundraising section of our website.

And finally....

Follow us on Twitter @ABAonline to keep up to date with all the latest news and to take part in our fantastic Twitter competition closer to the week to win a Cambridge Satchel Company Bag and other prizes.

You can also like us at www.facebook.com/anti-bullyingalliance.

About Anti-Bullying Alliance

Anti-Bullying Alliance \(ABA\) is a unique coalition of organisations, schools, colleges and individuals who are committed to tackling all forms of bullying behaviour between children and young people. ABA works all year round to reduce bullying, and to create safer environments where children and young people can live, grow, play and learn.

The ABA School and College Network has been created to meet the specific needs of those working in the education sector. To find out how you join the hundreds of schools who are now active members of the ABA visit our website. Visit the ABA website now to find out more about our work: www.anti-bullyingalliance.org.uk

Anti-Bullying Week Shop

Order the official Anti-Bullying Week 2012 campaign pack - great value at £14.99.

Primary school packs, poster packs, pencils and additional merchandise are also on sale now.

To order visit the Anti-Bullying Alliance Shop.

Campaign packs will be sent free of charge to all members of the ABA School and College Network that sign up by 5th November. To receive your free campaign pack sign up to the School and College Network today.

Film Creatives presents:

What happened to J?

Calling all secondary school teachers looking for an interactive and creative approach to this year's Anti-Bullying Week. Film Creatives, a drama and film organisation in partnership with the ABA has bespoke Anti-bullying programmes to suit any secondary age group - adaptable to your timetable. Using their acclaimed interactive film and skilled facilitators they engage students in a lively debate to explore what bullying is all about. Workshops culminate in the creation of an Anti-bullying policy that can be adapted to your own school policy. Film Creatives can travel to any school throughout the country and each workshop receives a DVD free of charge. Visit the Film Creatives website to book your workshop or to buy the DVD. Interactive flyer available here.

Are you planning any activities during Anti-Bullying Week? ABA often gets approached by the media looking for exciting activities to film. If you're potentially interested please contact our press officer Jess at jchampion@ncb.org.uk