The Norfolk & Norwich Novi Sad Association is delighted to welcome the pianist John Humphreys Professor of Music from Birmingham Conservatoire to play at the 2013 Paul Cross Memorial Concert which will be held at the Norwich Assembly House on 26th January. As well as playing Sonatas by Haydn, Beethoven and Schubert and Schubert's Landler, John Humphreys will be acknowledging our twinning link with Eastern Europe by playing Bartok's Six Romanian Folk Dances

The Paul Cross Memorial Concert is held annually in memory of a much-loved former chairman of the association to highlight the twinning and to support an educational project at The Milan Petrović School for children and young people with special needs in Novi Sad. A visit earlier this year to the school in Novi Sad enabled members of the Association to see how equipment for a Black Room, provided by the Association following last year's concert, will benefit children with visual and sensory needs.

We feel sure that this concert will help maintain the strong friendship links already established between Norwich and Novi Sad.
