

sign2sing 2013 communication brings everyone together

It's time for sign2sing again! The world record breaking event takes place on 6th February 2013!

This year it's even easier to take part and we will be supplying you with a host of exciting, fun and educational teaching resources, completely free of charge, featuring Olli the Monkey.

"sign2sing is a terrific initiative which teaches the children a new and valuable skill as well as raising awareness of deaf issues and the children love taking part." E. Tang, Great Missenden C of E School.

Digital resources including whiteboard app, sign language lesson plans, additional signed songs, invitations etc, are NOW AVAILABLE digitally for ease of access and this means that children can practise both at school and at home!

Register your interest to take part at www.sign2sing.org/register.html or call us to register on 01494 687 600, then we will send you all the necessary information and resources to start practising to sign and sing.

Further information

Record Breakers On Wednesday February 6th 2013 at 2.45 p.m. more than 800 schools throughout the UK and in other parts of the world will be taking part in sign2sing 2013 for SignHealth as we attempt to break our current Guinness World Record. sign2sing has captured the hearts of school children, parents and teachers throughout the UK and has significantly helped raise awareness of deafness and sign language as well as raising vital funds for SignHealth. sign2sing is not only great fun but also an enriching educational experience! Schools have introduced sign2sing throughout the curriculum from music to phse.

After the event All qualifying participants will receive their very own Guinness World Record Certificate which contains a SECRET digital key to the locked door of Olli's treetop home - Monkey Manor! Here they can explore Olli the Monkey's amazing world of fun, educational signing games and competitions.

We hope that your school will join us.

Thanks for your support,
