

ESPO is delighted to be the networking sponsor for the Association of Business Management in Norfolk Schools (ABMNS).

We share common aims:

- To support school managers
- To help schools get the best deals through smart procurement
- To provide opportunities for advice and assistance

If you are not yet a member of ABMNS then contact rcole@hethersetthigh.org.uk for more information and a form (it is free to join!) www.abmns.co.uk

Why not speak to your Schools very own Money Saving Expert – your ESPO Account Manager...

Did you know that every ESPO customer has an Area Account Manager who is available to help with a wide range of purchasing and procurement queries?

Peter Legind is the Education Account Manager covering Norfolk and Suffolk, he can help with anything from catalogue queries through to help and advice on using our growing range of EU compliant contracts.

You might also want to consider contacting Peter to book a procurement healthcheck which is a free service provided by ESPO as part of our commitment to deliver reduced costs for our Education customers
