

ESPO Christmas Card Competition 2013

Your chance to design the official ESPO Christmas card...

For Pupils Aged 7-16 Years

This year's Christmas card competition has two age categories based around the National Curriculum key stages:-

- Pupils aged from 7 up to 11 years at 31st August 2014
- Pupils aged over 11 up to 16 years at 31st August 2014

There will be six winning designs from both categories (see below) and an overall winner whose card will be printed and used as the ESPO 2013 Christmas card which is sent to all our customers and suppliers.

Entries should:

- Take account of the National Curriculum attainment target for Art & Design
- Have a spiritual and cultural element which embraces and celebrates Christmas.

The entries will be judged on the following criteria:

- Imagination
- Degree of skill displayed
- Use of colour and variety of media
- Relevance to Christmas

All entries should be received by Friday 8th November 2013 accompanied by the completed entry form (overleaf).

*The overall winner will also receive a number of his/her own exclusive winning design Christmas cards, which can be used to send to family and friends.

Winning schools will be notified by Friday 6th December.

Competition Rules

- Entries should be A5 size (148x210mm), one entry per pupil, using any medium except collage.
- As the winning design will be printed onto card no glitter, appliqué, collage, etc will be allowed as these do not reproduce very well and will have to be excluded from the competition.
- All entries must be original works, i.e. no copies can be accepted.
