Key Stage 2 Victorian Whodunit? at Gressenhall Farm and Workhouse

'The high quality of the drama was so engaging that the children were working furiously to absorb as much information as they could. Thank you to all who took part in the day, it was a joy to see such high calibre teaching!'

Find out about life in Victorian England through our dramatic Whodunit. Meet costumed characters, both rich and poor, and engage in active learning sessions in our Victorian schoolroom, cottage kitchen, workhouse and laundry. Can you help discover who has committed the terrible crime?

Our Victorian Whodunit is a fantastic support for literacy work. It is an engaging and accessible day which promote listening, speaking and questioning skills. The event offers your children an immersive experience which provides a vast amount of material to promote effective writing: subject-specific language, atmospheric settings and developed characters.

To enter into the spirit of Victorian life we invite you to come in costume.
