

HISTORY FORUM EVENT

open to all teachers in the East Anglian region

Knowledge and Progression in the New History Curriculum

(for primary and secondary school teachers) Course Code EPGK4

23rd November 2013 from 10.00 am - 1.00 pm at Norwich Professional Development Centre
(refreshments available from 9.30 am)

The Department For Education has now published the final Programmes of Study for History to be taught from September 2014. The new curriculum contains new content but without history specific progression information and targets. A new series of national forums to help teachers to share concerns and ideas and to plan for this change have been organised by the Historical Association and partners. The East Anglian Forum will include engaging and practical workshops for both primary and secondary teachers and confirmed national key speakers and workshop leaders include: Chris Culpin, Jo Philpott, Terry Haydn and Hilary Pegrum. There will also be input on local history led by Anne Roe and Kate Argyle.

£20 for non HA Members / £10 for HA members and concessions

There is no charge for paid up members of the Norfolk History Network but places must be booked so that we can gauge numbers.
